

The U.S. Army Brass Quintet

A Military Appreciation Concert

Saturday, May 4 at 7pm

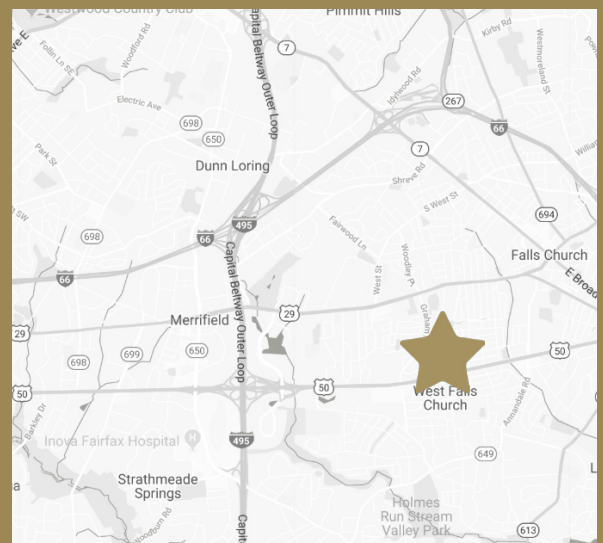

Since its inception in 1972, The U.S. Army Brass Quintet has gained a reputation as one of the most highly respected and sought after groups of its kind. All are welcome to enjoy this exceptional ensemble in a concert being offered in appreciation of the service and sacrifice of our military members and their families.

Appropriately for "May the Fourth," the Quintet has promised to include Star Wars music in the program.

An element of The U.S. Army Band "Pershing's Own" in Washington, DC, the ensemble has performed at the White House, presidential inaugurations, and official state ceremonies as well as for audiences in 48 states and 14 foreign countries. They have performed on NBC's "Today Show," NPR's "A Prairie Home Companion," CBS' "Sunday Morning," and on ABC, FOX, CNN, TNN, and the BBC. The group's repertoire includes over 500 selections from all eras and genres of classical and popular music.
